On November 14, 2023, New Jersey State Police executed a search warrant at 344 Prospect Street in Phillipsburg. As a result of that search, significant quantities of controlled dangerous substances were discovered alongside materials designed for the packaging, marking, and distributing of those substances. Much of this product was found amongst the toys of the defendants' three-year old child. Law enforcement also discovered 3 half-sticks of dynamite and a collapsible baton. While being processed at the Warren County Correctional Facility, an additional quantity of narcotics were found secreted into a body cavity of Mr. Jones. In total, law enforcement officers seized:

- 102 Grams (3.6 ozs.) of Fentanyl, which amounts to over 5,000 single doses and carries a street value of approximately $10,200;
- 46 Grams (1.6 ozs.) of Methamphetamine, possessing a street value of approximately $1,380;
- 28 Grams (1 oz.) of Cocaine, possessing a street value of approximately $1,820;
- 2 Transdermal Fentanyl patches;
- 5 Pressed Fentanyl pills;
- 6 Clonazepam pills;
- 35 Lorazepam pills;
- 3 half-sticks of dynamite;
- Packing materials and stamps, and;
- A collapsible baton

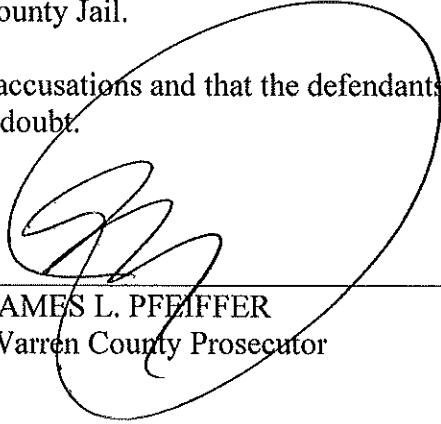

Jones and Trembler were charged with the following offenses and held at the Warren County Correctional Facility pending a detention hearing:

1. Possession with Intent to Distribute Cocaine, Second Degree, 2C:35-5
2. Possession with Intent to Distribute Fentanyl, Second Degree, 2C:35-5
3. Unlawful Possession of Clonazepam, Fourth Degree, 2C:35-10
